

Self Leadership Collaborative Online

Master the mindset and skillset to achieve goals and accelerate time to performance.

Speed up development.
Overcome constraints.
Achieve goals.

Learn how to do all this through a collaborative online learning journey.

Self Leadership Collaborative Online is a learning journey that teaches the mindset and skillset your people need to become proactive self-starters and take control of their development.

Participants learn how to:

- Ask for the direction and support they need to attain mastery faster and take control of their own development.
- Engage and commit to improve performance.
- Hold themselves accountable for achieving goals and successfully executing the organization's initiatives.
- Overcome constraints that limit their ability to solve problems, address challenges, and develop innovative solutions.
- Feel the satisfaction that comes from doing great work.

Becoming an empowered self leader is the key to a successful and gratifying career.

In our most recent Self Leadership Collaborative Online Cohort:

265 attendees joined us from 17 countries

And had this to say:

*"I appreciate the structure provided to diagnose, match, and have conversations in which individuals explain/ask for how their needs can be met—this is very impactful and I'm keen to put it into practice!"*

"The entire Self Leadership program is an "aha" moment for me. I wanted everyone on my team to go through the program; it will not only let us be more focused on completing the task at hand, but it can also make our work relationship better. Very nice program!"

And after six weeks:

 93% have clear and compelling goals that help drive their performance

 96% have had One on One meetings in the last 30 days with their manager or another leader on their development needs

 95% have the ability to turn a negative thought into a positive intention or action

 89% have the skill to proactively ask for the direction and support needed to achieve their goals

Participants experienced dramatic increases in confidence in each of these:

Identifying what's holding them back from achieving their goals

Assessing their competence and commitment on a specific goal or task

Recognizing personal characteristics, skills, and role-related situations that enable them to influence outcomes or people
